

Report on workshop on 'Art of facing an interview'

Interviews provide us an opportunity to build a personal rapport while having a professional conversation. Depending on the type of industry, interviews are conducted for a variety of purposes. Cracking an interview and getting selected for the job position is considered to be a challenging task. Considering this, IQAC and Dept of Management of RBANM's FGC organised a one day students' workshop on 'Art of facing an interview' on 25/07/2022. All the dignitaries and students were welcomed by Ms. Mahalakshmi KS, faculty of commerce and management.

The workshop was presided by Dr.Prathap principal, Prof Ravindra vice principal and organised by Prof Priya K placement cell co-ordinator. The resource person for the workshop was Ms. Sasha Kulothungan chairperson of Agasty charitable foundation, district co-ordinator for Lions club, International Foundation District 317F.

She spoke on various aspects of the interview process and questions asked normally in the interview. She explained certain important aspects like:

- Building an effective resume.
- Appearance for interview.
- Communication.
- Body Language.
- Prioritisation of goals

She also explained different types of assessment rounds conducted in an interview such as:

- Aptitude Test
- Group Discussion
- Face to Face session
- Panel Interview

She concluded the workshop by motivating everyone to stay calm and positive during the interview process and she also assigned a task to the students to build a resume within the last half an hour. She picked up a few students' resumes and rectified the ones they prepared. Mr. Farooq Siddiqui, faculty of English conveyed the vote of thanks and winded the session.
